

In this dynamic simulation, students will play the role of a full-time Uber driver with two kids to support, and a $1000 mortgage payment due in a week. Will they be able to earn enough to pay the bill — and make more than other players?

<https://ig.ft.com/uber-game/>

The same purchase can cost four different amounts, depending on how you use your credit card. How much would you pay?

https://www.thirteen.org/finance/games/itcostswhat\_casefiles.html

Payback - a new simulation that we launched to help students master their money decisions during their college years. Perfect for your seniors before they head off to community college or a 4-year program.

<https://www.timeforpayback.com>

Spent - you can tell your students they need an emergency fund or you can have them play Spent in which they live the life of someone living paycheck to paycheck.

<http://playspent.org>